This volume is very beautiful with great, bold colors on each page. These 10 comics introduce the following characters: Recondo, Blowtorch, Rip-Cord, Lady Jaye, Candy, Captain Keel-Haul, Tomax, Xamot, Flint, Footloose, Shipwreck, Barbecue, and a few others. We also learn that Billy is Cobra Commander's son, Destro takes off his mask in front of the Baroness, and a remodeled Pitt is opened up for business. Overall I see no errors or missing pages. If you grew up in the 80s like me and want to reconnect with the comics, check out this volume. I have the original comics and so this is a great way to read them without messing up the originals. Keep in mind to those that may think these collect newer comics; they are not. These comics are around 24 years old and this volume brings them back to life beautifully. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Another great collection By JDA This is where the legendary run of Larry Hama really starts to pick up! A lot of my favorite Joe's and Cobra agents are introduced and the art grows increasingly better. A must have for any fan. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. And the battle rages on... By Anthony Zorko Forgot how truly great these comics are. The passing of the torch from first to second generation Joe's is very nostalgic. YO JOE!

The original Marvel Comics adventures of America's elite special-mission force continues in this fourth collection! When Snake Eyes takes leave at his mountain retreat, he's ambushed though he's not the only one injured in the melee. Plus, Billy turns out to be Cobra Commander's son, and much more! This action-packed volume collects G.I. Joe issues #31-40.
