It starts with a 70s tie in that is hilarious, and brilliant, then goes on to include some of the best written Deadpool team ups of all time. Not only that, but this story showcases Wade's mercenary skills. Gone are his looney toon stories, and shameful defeats. He is a bad ass, and hilarious to boot.Buy this. Right now.Then buy the good the bad and the ugly arc in January.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Deadpool, vol 2: Soul HunterBy vince westThis story shows Deadpool uses his smarts more than it seems. It also has more farts jokes than usual. He gets involved with a contract with a demon from Hell. In this story we see Ironman not in a good place. We also see Ben Franklins ghost, Spiderman tries to stop Deadpool, Daredevil tries as well as a few other lesser known bad guys and 2 giant Great White sharks. All Deadpool wants is a spirit out of his body. But you never trust a demon from Hell. A LOT of action and very funny.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. About the AuthorBrian Posehn was born a long time ago and fell in love with comic books at a very young age. He decided to wait to write them until he was in his forties. Before embarking on a career in comic-book writing, he floated through a series of odd jobs - including standup comedy, TV writing, and film and sitcom acting. Since arriving at Marvel, he feels he's found his true calling, but will continue to do "the other crap" "for fun." Posehn's collaborations with Gerry Duggan include The Last Christmas, a Jaws parody for The Simpsons' Treehouse of Horror comics, some screenplays and TV ideas you'll never see, and a baby they're raising together in the basement of a local abandoned sanitarium.Gerry Duggan received the education he needed to write from a steady diet of comic books and Late Night With David Letterman. He didn't know that...so he wasted a ton of money on a pricey diploma from Emerson College in Boston. After graduating, he arrived in Los Angeles and hooked up almost immediately with Brian Posehn. Together, they've written Marvel NOW!'s Deadpool, The Simpsons and The Last Christmas, the true story of Santa Claus after the apocalypse. Both he and artist Phil Noto earned Eisner Award nominations for The Infinite Horizon, a re-imagining of The Odyssey in a dystopian future.
