Deadpool vol 4: Deadpool vs SHIELDBy vince westDeadpool after fighting all dead presidents and getting a SHIELD agents spirit placed into his body is being denied the money promised. And if agent Preston is in him who is the agent Preston walking around up to no good? Deadpool is trying to get his money and find agent Preston a new robotic body. Basically he is at war with SHIELD and finding a lot of sneaky things going on all involving a high ranking SHIELD agent Gorman, who is also one holding money from him. We get to see parts of Deadpool's past too. So we see him at war with SHIELD, a 10 million dollar bounty on his head, bad agents, fake agents, spirits and magic. It is very exciting all trying to get owed money and Preston back to her family. LOTS of surprises. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. 4/5 The art takes some getting use to though I think they could find much better artists than these dumb-fs By SLAVE Art: 4/5 Stories: 4/5 The art takes some getting use to though I think they could find much better artists than these dumb-fs! Overall, tolerable. The stories are highly absurd but that is expected from Deadpool comics. Though I would like a Deadpool comic run without the 4th wall crap but I'm fine with it overall. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A good place to jump in the middle By CQ The title caught my attention. Dedapool and Coulson? I'm so there! It's pure Deadpool, so completely enjoyable, but there is a lot in here that references prior events (North Korea, anyone?) and the end piece leading into the next thing I'll have to buy. So, yeah, the middle. But a very enjoyable one. Buy it, read it. 'nuff said.

S.H.I.E.L.D. makes a grievous tactical error when they stiff Deadpool on a bill. And you can bet that they're going to regret it! Deadpool declares a one-man war on the world peacekeeping agency - but even as the maniacal merc pursues his revenge, S.H.I.E.L.D. discovers that someone has been betraying them.
