Richard Sala : Delphine Vol. 4 (Ignatz) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Delphine Vol. 4 (Ignatz):

It's here! The horrifying final chapter of the critically acclaimed macabre mini-series by Richard Sala, the gleefully demented creator of Peculia and The Chuckling Whatsit. Luaded by Rue Morgue Magazine, among others, Delphine follows a traveler searching for his lost love and encountering a number of frightening obstacles along the way. These include witches, werewolves, bloody murder and a pack of sinister dwarves (did we mention that this is a twisted re-imagining of "Snow White"?). Despite all this, the traveler persists, staggering onward towards a hair-raising climax and an inevitable confrontation with unspeakable evil! Mark your calendars - in blood!
