Asuka and Ryu have started dating, because they love each other even though they want different things in a relationship. In this volume, they're getting settled into the relationship, and having trouble finding the time for each other. They have some troubles, and Asuka wants to take things a little slower than Ryu does, at first at least. Its surprisingly hot, several scenes in this volume. But even during that, theyre sweet together, and I love seeing their relationship grow. I like that we get equal time with each character, and get to see from both of their sides. The humor is nice, and not very exaggerated. Its realistic, and relatable. I am quite loving this series, and cant wait for the next volume. A review copy was provided by the publisher, VIZ Media, for an honest review. Thank you so, so much! Successful career woman Asuka Takanashi has an old-fashioned dream of getting married and becoming a housewife. After her long-term boyfriend breaks up with her to pursue his own career goals, she encounters Ryu Nanami, the popular newscaster at PTV. Asuka and Ryu get along well, but the last thing he wants is to ever get married. This levelheaded pair who want the opposite things in life should never get involved, except... Successful career woman Asuka Takanashi has an old-fashioned dream of getting married and becoming a housewife, but popular TV newscaster Ryu Nanami would rather die than ever get married. Asuka and Ryu know this about each other and have started a relationship anyway, but can their new love overcome their differences?
