Gen Urobuchi : Fate/Zero Volume 4 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fate/Zero Volume 4:

I always considered this to be the point where Fate/Zero began showing itself to be one of the all-time great anime that I've watched. This volume covers the 2nd half of episode 6 to roughly the end of 7, a much lower amount of content per volume than the last three. And while this slow pacing does drag the volume down one star, the content keeps the series good. Highlights of this volume include round 2 of Team Saber vs. Team Lancer, Gilgamesh and Kirei's first conversation, and the beginning of the assault on Einzbern castle. At the end, the stage is set for what I hope to be a memorable volume 5. 0 of 0 people
