Divorce is tough for any teenager, but when your Mom is a normal human housewife and your Dad is a 300-foot-tall, city-stomping Monster things get even tougher. This is Duncan Rosenblatt's reality. His Mom wants him to keep up his grades and go to community college. His Dad wants him to ascend to his rightful place as king of all monsters. Following a carefully negotiated custody agreement overseen by the U.N., Duncan and his mother settle in a quiet little town in Utah. After a tumultuous assimilation into the local high school, a violent confrontation with a creature from his father's past, and a courageous stand against his father Belloc, Duncan's life gains a semblance of normalcy. That is, until a mysterious stalker begins to hound his every move, his high school crush rejects his affection, and his father asks him to commit the unthinkable!
