I find Sam-soon's arc to be the most enjoyable and find the character has grown up a bit more than the previous volumes. Pick the series up if you enjoy this kinds of premise or if you just want something to read that's a little bit fresh than what is offered out there and see how the ups and downs of life greatly affect decision making.

COMING OF AGE Still not fully healed from the wound of breaking up with Tsukushi and the shock of seeing Nobuta again, Serizawa starts an internship at a law firm. Through a mix-up over the phone, he becomes acquainted with a certain someonea woman who otherwise wouldn't be in his reach! Will this chance encounter start Serizawa on the path to his first truly adult relationship?
