The Green Arrow goes from superhero to fugitive in GREEN ARROW: BLACK ARROW, as acclaimed creators Mike Grell, Dan Jurgens and Dick Giordano continue their legendary run. As the Green Arrow, Seattle's own vigilante superhero, Oliver Queen is used to working outside the law in order to protect the citizens of his city, and the people he loves. But there are some lines even the Green Arrow won't cross. When Oliver is manipulated into betraying his country, he soon finds himself at the top of the FBI's Most Wanted list. Alone and on the run, Ollie is forced to track down the one person who can clear his name: the man who set him up in the first place. But what will he do once he finds him? Unclear. The Green Arrow has always been a hunter, but is he also a killer? Collects #29-38 of the classic series.

About the Author/Artist Michael Jon Grell quickly made a name for himself in comics by tackling one of its most difficult assignments -- the seemingly infinite universe of the Legion of Super-Heroes. From there, Grell joined Dennis O'Neil for a well-received Green Lantern and Green Arrow revival and might have become a regular contributor to the Batman office if his creation WARLORD had not taken off to become DC's most successful fantasy title ever. Grell (whose other works of note include Jon Sable, Freelance, Starslayer and GREEN ARROW) still writes the occasional BATMAN tale.
