By Charles Singleton Not a huge fan of The New 52, but the stories and art are really good. 32 of 34 people found the following review helpful. What was DC thinking? This volume is CRAP. Go buy SUPERMAN: DOOMED instead. By Timothy S.

Mitchell Imagine buying a book, and as you read it you find out that it only contains chapters 1, 4, 7, 10, and 14. But nowhere in the book does it warn you that this is what you have purchased. You just dive in, and at the beginning of each chapter you feel like there's been a huge hole in the story that you've missed. THAT IS THIS BOOK. The only reason I can figure out why this book exists is because if you are collecting all of the Action Comics trades then you need this for your collection. Don't you dare try to read it! Instead buy SUPERMAN: DOOMED. It contains the entire story chronologically - and its actually a great Superman story! 0 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Definitely recommend if you're the kind of guy who likes his heroes with their underwear on this inside!

Doomsday is here. The most brutal force Superman has ever faced is back, killing all life everywhere he goes. But defeating the beast is just the beginning. The evil of Doomsday has taken root inside Superman himself, turning him into an even deadlier, more destructive monster and leaving the Earth defenseless for an invasion from beyond. However, Superman does not fight his battle alone. Lois Lane. Lana Lang. Steel. Batman. Some are superheroes, others just everyday people of extraordinary bravery. It will take all they have to pull Superman back from the brink. It will take all Superman has to save the planet from its enemies - and himself. Writer Greg Pak (BATMAN/SUPERMAN) and artists Aaron Kuder (GREEN LANTERN: NEW GUARDIANS) and Scott Kolins (JUSTICE LEAGUE) lead the charge against Doomsday - the Last Son of Krypton's greatest challenge yet! Collects ACTION COMICS #30-35 and ACTION COMICS ANNUAL #3. From the Hardcover edition.

"Pak is lifting the original superhero to great heights once again." --CBR About the Author Greg Pak is a filmmaker and comic book writer best known for directing the award-winning feature film "Robot Stories" and writing the epic "Planet Hulk" and "World War Hulk" storylines for Marvel Comics.
