This trade feels with the aftermath of that and one of the best Justice League stories Destinies HandBy Rob SnowI can't believe it's taken this long to collect this run. Dan Jurgens time as JLA crossed over with Death of Superman. This trade feels with the aftermath of that and one of the best Justice League stories Destinies Hand. Also included is perhaps one of my all time favorite single issues, JLA Annual 6 from the Eclipso crossover, featuring Blue Beetle. Worth the wait0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Better than I rememberedBy BarClayI've been walking down the comic book memory lane for some time now. Often, I am disappointed, having remembered stories and plots that no longer withstand the test of time -- or perhaps withstand my maturing tastes. This collection of Justice League stories was better than I remembered. Well drawn and creative, it was a pleasure meeting characters who have long since disappeared from the DC pantheon. And it's also suitable for children. I recommend this highly.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A must buy for comic book fansBy Steve C. This trade paperback and the stories contained within are phenomenal. Having only previously read stories from this group of comics in bits and pieces, it is truly wonderful now to be able to read it as a whole. For a fan who grew up in the 90s these Comics are an absolute treasure.

THE JUSTICE LEAGUE RIPPED APART! The Man of Steel has died! Falling at the hands of the monster Doomsday, the Justice League's most powerful member is now gone. And in addition to killing Superman, the creature grievously injures Leaguers Blue Beetle, Booster Gold and more! How will the Justice League re-collect in this moment of crisis? Who will be the newest members? And how will they cope in a world without Superman? Veteran comics creator Dan Jurgens is joined by an all-star team of artists that include Rick Burchett and the legendary Dave Cockrum as they chronicle the JLAs loss of their leader and the worlds greatest hero, Superman! Collects JUSTICE LEAGUE OF AMERICA #69-77 and JUSTICE LEAGUE OF AMERICA ANNUAL #6.

About the Author Dan Jurgens is a writer and artist most famous for creating Booster Gold as well as for being one of the main forces behind "The Death of Superman." He has written and/or illustrated titles such as JUSTICE LEAGUE AMERICA, Captain America, The Sensational Spider-Man, Thor, TEEN TITANS, AQUAMAN, DC's Tangent imprint, and the company-wide DC crossover known as ZERO HOUR.
