Michael Kupperman : Tales Designed to Thrizzle #5 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Tales Designed to Thrizzle #5:

Thrizzle #5 is the Old People's issue, dedicated to the Greatest Generations! Aliens give an innocent man sexy woman's legs, and Twain and Einstein have many, many adventures, including a journey through multiple dreamscapes, a superhero/private eye caper, and a meeting with an enraged badger. Plus noir arts crafts, hobo fashions, the birth of the Monkees and other old-timey favorites.
